Participate Now: EASPD Photo Competition

The European Association of Service providers for Persons with Disabilities (EASPD) continues collecting entries for the Photo Competition Revealed & Unveiled!

Revealed & Unveiled will present the work of service providers for persons with disabilities across Europe during the celebrations for the 20th Anniversary of EASPD in October 2016.

The best 20 photographs will be selected by an international professional jury and will be displayed for two months in a Photo Exhibition in the heart of the European capital: Halles Saint Géry / Sint-Gorikshallen, Brussels!

Who can participate?

- This Competition is open to any citizen coming from a European country!

How to participate or support the initiative?

- Send 1 high quality photograph representing the care to persons with disabilities and/or their family to photocompetition@easpd.eu.
- Spread the word and invite more potential participants from your country! You can use the 'call for entries; flyers that you can find on this page

What should the photograph show?

The concept is abstract and the participants are free to choose how to address the topic of the competition... Take a selfie or a picture of how/ when/ where/ who provides the support...

The participants should show their vision of how the CARE service providers for persons with disabilities provide can be expressed IN A SINGLE PHOTOGRAPH!

When?

- Deadline for participation is 27 March 2016, 12:00 p.m. CET

Before you go, please read the attached

- Call for entries* (in various languages).
